

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

was performed at Epiphany Chapel, Washington, last Saturday by Rev. Charles F. Edwards.

Mr. Virgil Thompson, of Madison, Ind., spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Thompson, of 611 Queen street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs, of this city, and Misses Mattie Bell and Grace Jones, of New York City, visited friends at Fairfax Court House Sunday.

Messrs. John Morton, Walter Wallace, and Arthur M. Gray have gone to Rochester, N. Y., to attend the sessions of the Glass Bottle Blowers' Association.

Mr. C. W. Flett and Miss Hazel Flett are visiting relatives in Strasburg, Va. Bishop Gibson, of Richmond, accompanied by his daughters, Misses Lucy and Mary Gibson, have left Seminary Hill for their homes.

Mrs. Robert S. Barrett and family, who have been pending July at their bungalow at Cape Henry, have returned home.

Mr. T. F. Elliott, of Mount Vernon, has returned from a six weeks' trip through the West.

Miss Boldin, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Susan Smoot.

Mrs. D. Moxley Low is visiting relatives in Culpeper, Va.

Mr. Henry Hunter has gone to Massanutta Springs.

Mrs. H. O. B. Cooper is visiting at Blackstone, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moore, Jr., are visiting on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Dr. T. B. Cochran and family have gone to the country to spend a few weeks.

COLONIAL BEACH.

Miss Florence Friable has as her guests at the Curtis Cottage Mrs. and Miss Annie Washburn and Miss Esther Grossburg, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Anna Mullikin and daughters are guests of Mrs. Mullikin's parents, Rev. and Mrs. George Davenport.

Messrs. Clara Case, M. Miller, Edna and May Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. James Cox, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Miller, Messrs. Charles Dechard and R. W. Taylor, of Washington, are guests of Mr. M. J. Johnson, at the "Buckingham."

Miss Ella Robey, daughter of Capt. L. E. Robey, of Union Station, is entertaining her friend, Miss Elizabeth Cullen, and her cousin, Mr. Paul Robey, of Washington, at their cottage on Garfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Singer are spending a pleasant vacation at the Wilson Cottage on the river front.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Walter, E. Clement Louik, H. P. Leinen, Misses Nora, Burt, and Irene Dyer, Miss Hester Fairfax, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rupert, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Jewett, H. A. Allen and R. F. Stuart, of Washington, are guests at the Johnson House.

Senator Shaffroth, of Colorado, and nephew, Mrs. William E. Matthews and daughter, Mrs. William E. Matthews, Jr., visited the Beach for one day last week, leaving Mrs. William E. Matthews and son to spend a two weeks' vacation.

Dr. R. Parsons, A. R. French, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace L. Randolph, C. H. Canten, W. C. Whitman, H. Alexander, Misses Lydia Murphy, Helen Beach, Elizabeth McGee, and Mrs. H. E. Beach are Washington guests at the Stuart Cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Blackwood are spending a pleasant outing at the Beach.

Among the Washington guests at the "Linwood" are Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Herlin, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ellington, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, the Misses L. Ruth Ferguson, Ethel Tanwill, R. Jones, B. Conner, and E. Dove, Messrs. Lewis Borden, W. E. Borden, William H. Duvall, Victor

MRS. MARK BROOKE.

Mrs. Brooke is the wife of Capt. Mark Brooke, U. S. A., and Assistant Engineer Commissioner of the District. With Capt. Brooke and their little daughter she will sail for the Philippines October 5, where her husband has been ordered for duty.

Klein, Louis Talbert, M. E. Borden, J. A. Kane, and W. B. Williams.

Mr. George J. Stafford has joined his wife and son here for a week's vacation.

Miss Roberta McClanahan, of Baltimore, is a guest of Miss Ethel Jones, at her attractive cottage on Bancroft avenue.

"Irrivington," the attractive home of Mrs. E. V. Yates, is the scene of a pleasant little house party composed of the following friends: Mrs. S. C. Campbell, of Baltimore; Mrs. T. J. Lithgort, of Washington; Miss Mary Osburn, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. James Mers, of Belinda, Va. They will enjoy the delights of the Beach for several weeks.

Messrs. Clara Chappier, Lucy V. Mass, Jean Thompson, O. V. Heddings, Sadie Edmanrich, A. C. Ginnell, Mr. and Mrs. T. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Davenport, Messrs. E. O. Crocker, H. C. Schullis, H. R. Cox, A. W. Bunell, James A. Stone, William Jenkins, Howard Dix, John W. Tucker, R. B. Mackley, George D. Ashton, H. Goldberg, Charles H. Keen, Lyman Jacobs, and Mr. and Mrs. James Simmons, all of Washington, are guests at the Byrd Hotel for the week.

Messrs. Childs Keenan, J. O. Joffit, Fred V. Kellner, Garland Honberg, L. Q. Tins, Thomas C. Malone, of Park Lane, Va.; E. P. Sterick, E. V. Hann, D. F. Dishman and wife, Mrs. J. B. Mickum, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Johnson, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Regan, Mr. and Mrs. William Bagby, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mr. I. Wilson, E. Fleming and son, M. Lockey, William Muir, William H.

Miss Elizabeth Ninde, of Fredericksburg, Va., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. F. Ninde, at the New Waterford.

Mr. Crutcher is visiting his family here at their pretty home in Lonsing avenue.

Among the many guests at the Walcott House are C. W. Walsh and wife, John T. Nally, of Upper Marlboro; Misses Beatrice Jones, Dorla Nicholls, Jenny Bellar, Kate Kegan, Fannie Means, Ethel Means, Emma Robinson, Louise Chambers, Hazel Hill, Margaret Scharr, Alice Means, nee Monahan, and Mrs. Blanche Mises, Beatrice Gouldman, Anna Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ashdell, Messrs. Robert Winfree, Gus Redman, W. H. Voigt, Lee, Samuel Adams, John P. Pfingler, L. A. Wayland, Charles Sullivan, J. W. Hunter, A. W. Tucker, J. B. Riley, J. Baum, Theodore Miller, M. Gill, J. L. King, Thomas A. Holden, Benjamin Aldrich, William Bots, George W. Talbert, Mrs. A. W. Minlow, Mr. and Mrs. McGee, and Mrs. Eugene Schanze, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Darn are spending some time at the Rollins House.

Miss Case, of the George Washington University Hospital, is visiting friends here.

Mr. Landon Dulaney, of Bristol, Tenn., son of B. L. Dulaney, has been spending a very pleasant trip at the Beach.

Mrs. Kate M. McDaniel, of the Record, of Des Moines, in Washington, was a visitor here last week.

The following guests are spending their vacation at the New Atlanta: Mr. and Mrs. G. Longstone, Misses A. C. Ginnell, Pearl Grigsby, Mary Bannerman, Mildred Pierpoint, Sadie Ambusher, Sarah Ruben, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Haines, Mr. M. Ruben, Messrs. H. C. Schullis, Dabney Brown, J. A. Pierpoint, B. E. Pierpoint, George Ruben, Desoto Stith, and W. E. Stith.

Mr. Walter A. Burke is enjoying his summer outing in the salt waters of this resort.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hungerford are guests of Mrs. Hungerford's sister, Mrs. Calvin Spillman, on Lonsing avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Pollard and Mrs. Shaw are guests of Mrs. Henry West on Bancroft avenue.

Mr. George E. Vonieff, of Washington, spent a few days with his family, who are summering here.

Mr. George D. Ashton is spending some time here on a fishing trip, and is meeting with remarkable success.

Mrs. Howard Hollie is spending some time as a guest in the hospitable home of Mrs. B. H. Costenbader.

Miss Mary Hungerford is a guest of Miss Louise Billingsly. Miss Hungerford was a former resident of the Beach and always receives a warm welcome from her old friends.

Rev. John Poritz Tyler, bishop of North Dakota, acting for the bishop of Virginia, is enjoying an outing at the Beach and will hold services in St. Mary's Episcopal Church today.

Capt. John A. Slater arrived here in his yacht Nan yesterday. He was accompanied by Messrs. J. W. George, R. Clayton, Albert Ware, B. Hammond, David B. Wilensky, and A. G. Danderly. He had in tow the pleasure craft Addie M., Starlight, Bluebird, and Mud Ham. Capt. Slater and friends will leave shortly for Piney Point and Coan River on a fishing cruise.

Mr. George C. Ober, Jr., is a guest this week of Councilman W. A. Cooper, in Irving avenue.

Mrs. Smith and daughter, and Mrs. Grace De Atley and son, are visiting Mrs. N. A. Cox and other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ford and children are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Jones, in Monroe Bay.

Mr. H. A. Beach has joined his family reunion, composed of several generations, which is being held at their attractive camp near Elmer Park. All are from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Price, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, Mr. and Mrs. A. Landwehr, Mr. and Mrs. Hackney and child, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Horner, Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor, Messrs. L. E. Brown, E. J. Edmondson, Samuel Ford, Misses Viola Harris, Maud and Margaret Cuttondon, Elizabeth Taylor, Virginia Lewis, Louise Ford, Mrs. R. E. Dickey, Mrs. Gordon and daughter, Mrs. Nellie Lewis and grandchildren, Mrs. U. E. Cuttondon, Mrs. Starnell, all of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Reed, of Alexandria, are guests at the New Waterford.

James Stuart, C. Leeder, W. Gallier, R. B. Doggins, K. McLeod, S. L. Trimble, G. T. Tyler, L. M. Rose, S. Blendheim, L. B. Blendheim, B. Hick, Harry B. Nichols, F. P. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Offutt, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Brown, Mrs. E. Hofferman, Mrs. H. F. Balmer, Misses Ethel Jones, E. E. Rothe, Margaret Luckett, Winifred Riley, Nell Jones, M. McLane, Frances D. Alexander, Mary E. Clyde, E. M. Clyde, F. J. Blinger, all of Washington, and Miss Sarah Hays, of York, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. P. Staks, of Baltimore; W. W. Grenner, of Orange, Va., are only a few of the many guests at the Colonial Beach Hotel.

Mr. Leo Janssach is visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forsberg, in Irving avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jackson and children are guests of Mrs. James Durkin for the week at their cottage, "The Idle Hour."

Mr. Herbert D. Waters, of Mount Airy, Va., accompanied by some friends, is spending a few days here.

Mrs. Preston Roach and Mrs. Roger Jones are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Billingsley, in Denison street.

Mr. and Mrs. Isador Dyer, Miss Eva Beck, Kenneth Beck, John Green, Mr. C. B. Stunt and daughter, Mr. Hutchinson, of Washington, and Mr. Green, cashier of the Bowling Green (Va.) Bank, are guests of Mrs. M. J. Johnston.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Smith entertained the Rockville Club at a social gathering last night. The topic for the day was "Birds and Flowers." Miss Margaret Hiett played several selections on the violin. Refreshments were served.

Dr. and Mrs. William Barker, of Illinois, were guests during the week of Col. Spencer C. Jones here.

Prof. William P. Hay, of Kensington, is spending a few weeks at Beaufort, N. C.

Mrs. Thomas C. Keys is spending a few weeks with relatives on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Mrs. William E. Morgan and daughter, Miss Lillian, have returned to Rockville after spending several days at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Ellen Hiett and daughter, Miss Margaret Hiett, of New York City, are spending a few weeks in Rockville.

Messrs. Jessie and Louise Galtier entertained at a lawn party at their home near Gaithersburg a few evenings ago.

Dr. and Mrs. William L. Lewis have returned to Kensington from Ocean View, Va.

Miss Eva Bullard, of New York, is a visitor at the home of her brother, Dr. Ernest L. Bullard, here.

Judge and Mrs. John E. West and little granddaughter, Jean Ray, are at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Armistead West, near Darnestown, for two weeks.

Mrs. Hollis, of Washington, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. George L. Edmonds, here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Bouie are visiting relatives at Germantown for a few days.

After spending several weeks at Chautauque Lake, Mrs. Alice Bouie has returned to her home here.

In honor of the eighty-third birthday anniversary of Franklin Mace, a family reunion was held a few days ago at the Mace home near Mount Vernon. There were present the aged man's children and their husbands and wives and several of his grandchildren, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mace and Mr. and Mrs. William Mace, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. William G. Countelman, of Bethesda; Mr. and Mrs. Winifred E. Berry, of Rockville; Judge Arthur Mace, Charles R. Mace, Miss Dorcas Holman, and James D. Holman, of Washington, were present.

The members of Company K, Maryland National Guard, of Silver Spring, this county, have issued several hundred invitations to a ball to be held at Silver Spring Wednesday evening. The committee of arrangements is composed of Frank L. Hewitt, Hugh F. O'Donnell, Basil Boykin, Cliff Howes, William H. Fidler, Gerald Washen, Oscar McKay, and Paul Clark, and the patronesses will be Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have returned from a two weeks' stay at Piney Point.

Mrs. John Hall is entertaining Miss Bagley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Falk has left for a visit to relatives in Connellsville, Pa., later going to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bill are spending the week-end at Braddock Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reburn leave the latter part of this week for Bar Harbor.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, Jr., and family have returned from Edgewater, Md.

Miss Irene Sanderson is visiting Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have returned from a two weeks' stay at Piney Point.

Mrs. John Hall is entertaining Miss Bagley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Falk has left for a visit to relatives in Connellsville, Pa., later going to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bill are spending the week-end at Braddock Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reburn leave the latter part of this week for Bar Harbor.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, Jr., and family have returned from Edgewater, Md.

Miss Irene Sanderson is visiting Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

ROCKVILLE.

Mrs. Kate Smith, of Washington, and her granddaughter, Miss Katharine Brawner, of Portsmouth, Va., are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Nicholson, Jr., here.

Messrs. Lillian Prettyman and Sadie Magruder have returned to their home here after spending ten days at Niagara Falls and Chautauque Lake, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert E. L. Smith entertained the Rockville Club at a social gathering last night. The topic for the day was "Birds and Flowers." Miss Margaret Hiett played several selections on the violin. Refreshments were served.

Dr. and Mrs. William Barker, of Illinois, were guests during the week of Col. Spencer C. Jones here.

Prof. William P. Hay, of Kensington, is spending a few weeks at Beaufort, N. C.

Mrs. Thomas C. Keys is spending a few weeks with relatives on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Mrs. William E. Morgan and daughter, Miss Lillian, have returned to Rockville after spending several days at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Ellen Hiett and daughter, Miss Margaret Hiett, of New York City, are spending a few weeks in Rockville.

Messrs. Jessie and Louise Galtier entertained at a lawn party at their home near Gaithersburg a few evenings ago.

Dr. and Mrs. William L. Lewis have returned to Kensington from Ocean View, Va.

Miss Eva Bullard, of New York, is a visitor at the home of her brother, Dr. Ernest L. Bullard, here.

Judge and Mrs. John E. West and little granddaughter, Jean Ray, are at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Armistead West, near Darnestown, for two weeks.

Mrs. Hollis, of Washington, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. George L. Edmonds, here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Norman Bouie are visiting relatives at Germantown for a few days.

After spending several weeks at Chautauque Lake, Mrs. Alice Bouie has returned to her home here.

In honor of the eighty-third birthday anniversary of Franklin Mace, a family reunion was held a few days ago at the Mace home near Mount Vernon. There were present the aged man's children and their husbands and wives and several of his grandchildren, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mace and Mr. and Mrs. William Mace, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. William G. Countelman, of Bethesda; Mr. and Mrs. Winifred E. Berry, of Rockville; Judge Arthur Mace, Charles R. Mace, Miss Dorcas Holman, and James D. Holman, of Washington, were present.

The members of Company K, Maryland National Guard, of Silver Spring, this county, have issued several hundred invitations to a ball to be held at Silver Spring Wednesday evening. The committee of arrangements is composed of Frank L. Hewitt, Hugh F. O'Donnell, Basil Boykin, Cliff Howes, William H. Fidler, Gerald Washen, Oscar McKay, and Paul Clark, and the patronesses will be Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have returned from a two weeks' stay at Piney Point.

Mrs. John Hall is entertaining Miss Bagley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Falk has left for a visit to relatives in Connellsville, Pa., later going to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bill are spending the week-end at Braddock Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reburn leave the latter part of this week for Bar Harbor.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, Jr., and family have returned from Edgewater, Md.

Miss Irene Sanderson is visiting Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have returned from a two weeks' stay at Piney Point.

Mrs. John Hall is entertaining Miss Bagley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Falk has left for a visit to relatives in Connellsville, Pa., later going to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bill are spending the week-end at Braddock Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reburn leave the latter part of this week for Bar Harbor.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, Jr., and family have returned from Edgewater, Md.

Miss Irene Sanderson is visiting Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have returned from a two weeks' stay at Piney Point.

Mrs. John Hall is entertaining Miss Bagley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Falk has left for a visit to relatives in Connellsville, Pa., later going to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bill are spending the week-end at Braddock Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reburn leave the latter part of this week for Bar Harbor.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, Jr., and family have returned from Edgewater, Md.

Miss Irene Sanderson is visiting Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have returned from a two weeks' stay at Piney Point.

Mrs. John Hall is entertaining Miss Bagley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Falk has left for a visit to relatives in Connellsville, Pa., later going to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bill are spending the week-end at Braddock Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reburn leave the latter part of this week for Bar Harbor.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, Jr., and family have returned from Edgewater, Md.

Miss Irene Sanderson is visiting Mrs. Bennett G. Ray, Mrs. C. A. Waller, McCammon, Mrs. Enos C. Keys, Mrs. William Wimsatt, and Mrs. George Chandler.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Angle left yesterday for Moonhead, La. Mrs. A. B. Angle will be in New York on their return trip about September 1.

Mrs. T. A. Poole and daughter left Wednesday for Braddock Heights. Dr. Poole will spend the week-end with them.

Mrs. Horace C. Chandler will leave tomorrow for Muskoka Lake, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Venable and Mr. and Mrs. Hall have returned from a two weeks' stay at Piney Point.

Mrs. John Hall is entertaining Miss Bagley, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Falk has left for a visit to relatives in Connellsville, Pa., later going to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bill are spending the week-end at Braddock Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reburn leave the latter part of this week for Bar Harbor.

Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. R. Ogilby, Jr., and family have returned from Edgewater, Md.